Developing a synthesis mindset requires honing analytical and synthetic abilities. In this course, you will use tools and techniques to summarize your notes and reports, create comprehensive summaries and reports, and provide quick feedback after meetings.

Teaching objectives

At the end of the training, the participant will be able to:

- ✓ Collect, select, and analyze information
- ✓ Produce easily usable briefing notes
- ✓ Make a clear, meaningful, usable summary
- ✓ Practicing taking notes in real time
- ✓ Creating a concise oral summary

Intended audience

Anyone responsible for creating written or oral summaries.

Prerequisites

No specific knowledge required.

Practical details

Exercise

Activities include writing summary notes, note-taking, and individual presentations.

Course schedule

PARTICIPANTS

Anyone responsible for creating written or oral summaries.

PREREQUISITES

No specific knowledge required.

TRAINER QUALIFICATIONS

The experts leading the training are specialists in the covered subjects. They have been approved by our instructional teams for both their professional knowledge and their teaching ability, for each course they teach. They have at least five to ten years of experience in their field and hold (or have held) decision-making positions in companies.

ASSESSMENT TERMS

The trainer evaluates each participant's academic progress throughout the training using multiple choice, scenarios, hands-on work and more. Participants also complete a placement test before and after the course to measure the skills they've developed.

TEACHING AIDS AND TECHNICAL RESOURCES

- The main teaching aids and instructional methods used in the training are audiovisual aids, documentation and course material, hands-on application exercises and corrected exercises for practical training courses, case studies and coverage of real cases for training seminars.
- At the end of each course or seminar, ORSYS provides participants with a course evaluation questionnaire that is analysed by our instructional teams.
- A check-in sheet for each half-day of attendance is provided at the end of the training, along with a course completion certificate if the trainee attended the entire session.
