The role of team-leader is becoming increasingly common in the corporate world. Often complex to carry out because of its hybrid status, this role implies significant managerial responsibilities, but is often accompanied by limited room for manoeuvre. This training course will enable you to find the levers to mobilize individuals and teams alike, adopt the right reflexes for managing backlashes off the business line, and fully invest in this emerging managerial posture.

Teaching objectives

At the end of the training, the participant will be able to:

- ✓ Understanding the roles and objectives of team leaders
- ✓ Better manage your business and monitor performance
- ✓ Learning to communicate to trigger motivation
- ✓ Optimizing group dynamics for collective effectiveness
- ✓ Leading individual and group rituals

TRAINER QUALIFICATIONS

The experts leading the training are specialists in the covered subjects. They have been approved by our instructional teams for both their professional knowledge and their teaching ability, for each course they teach. They have at least five to ten years of experience in their field and hold (or have held) decision-making positions in companies.

ASSESSMENT TERMS

The trainer evaluates each participant's academic progress throughout the training using multiple choice, scenarios, hands-on work and more. Participants also complete a placement test before and after the course to measure the skills they've developed.

TEACHING AIDS AND TECHNICAL RESOURCES

- The main teaching aids and instructional methods used in the training are audiovisual aids, documentation and course material, hands-on application exercises and corrected exercises for practical training courses, case studies and coverage of real cases for training seminars.
- At the end of each course or seminar, ORSYS provides participants with a course evaluation questionnaire that is analysed by our instructional teams.
- A check-in sheet for each half-day of attendance is provided at the end of the training, along with a course completion certificate if the trainee attended the entire session.

1 Identifying the challenges of the team leader role

- Understanding the challenges and limits of the team leader role
- Base your legitimacy on something other than authority: competence, exemplarity, skills to value...
- Identify and communicate your area of responsibility with humility
- Understanding and applying different team-leading styles
- Understand the concepts of motivational leadership and situational leadership
- Trust your intuition and adapt your team leading to specific contexts and personalities

Hands-on work

Introduction of participants and their expectations through a collective reflection on what the role of team leader entails, and discussion of best practices and common mistakes (red flags).

TERMS AND DEADLINES

Registration must be completed 24 hours before the start of the training.
