At the end of the course, participants will be able to identify the preventive actions that can be implemented and, where necessary, adapt their posture and discourse to, ultimately, develop their role and reinforce their actions. This training program is intended for employees in the professional branches covered by the OPCO Atlas.

Teaching objectives

At the end of the training, the participant will be able to:

- ✓ Keep abreast of changes in regulations and case law
- ✓ Assess your organization's maturity in this area
- ✓ Learn to detect harassment signals
- ✓ Establish a prevention approach and share best practices
- ✓ Question and develop your approach
- ✓ Adapting prevention tools and campaigns
- ✓ Raising awareness and communicating with employees

Intended audience

Personnes adhérentes à l'OPCO Atlas : les référents dans la lutte contre le harcèlement sexuel et les agissements sexistes (désignés par l'employeur ou le CSE).

TRAINER QUALIFICATIONS

The experts leading the training are specialists in the covered subjects. They have been approved by our instructional teams for both their professional knowledge and their teaching ability, for each course they teach. They have at least five to ten years of experience in their field and hold (or have held) decision-making positions in companies.

ASSESSMENT TERMS

The trainer evaluates each participant's academic progress throughout the training using multiple choice, scenarios, hands-on work and more. Participants also complete a placement test before and after the course to measure the skills they've developed.

Practical details

Hands-on work

Interactive presentations, case studies to anchor the approach in people's minds. Toolbox: quizzes, games in pairs or in groups, discussion sessions, role-playing, video analysis... The activities presented are provided for guidance only and can be adjusted as required.

Teaching methods

La formation s'appuie en partie sur le guide "Lutter contre le sexisme, le harcèlement sexuel et le harcèlement moral". À chaque fois qu'une page est indiquée dans le présent programme, il s'agit d'une référence à une page de ce guide. Pour optimiser le parcours d'apprentissage, des modules e-learning peuvent être fournis avant et après la session présentielle ou la classe virtuelle, sur simple demande du participant.
